

Useful information about Osijek and how to reach us

Osijek is an important university city in Eastern Croatia and is one of the country's largest cities, after Zagreb, Split and Rijeka. It is a major rail hub and also has its own busy airport, making it popular with tourism. Osijek is noted for its scenic setting on the Drava River, for its large squares and for its gateway status to the towns of Slavonia.

A trendy water promenade, a historic fortress from the 18th century, large plazas and busy shopping streets (such as the Kapucinska) all clearly demonstrate its resilience to adversity and improving tourism appeal. Of note, the Osijek tourist information office is located on the Zupanijska in the city centre, next to the tramline and just across from the Trg Lava Mirskog square.

There are three main areas in Osijek, the Upper Town (Gornji Grad) - based around the central Trg Ante Starcevic plaza, the Lower Town (Donji Grad) and also the Tvrda citadel / fortress area. Sited on the Trg Svetog Trojstva, the Tvrda is a major attraction in the city and features stylish Austrian Habsburg architecture, being conceived by Prince Eugen Savojski and constructed between 1712 and 1721. Fronting the Park Perivoj Kralja Tomislava, the Tvrda fortress resides on the Europa Avenue (Europska Avenija), which functions as the city's principal artery and connects both the Park Kralja Petra Kresimira IV and the Park Kralja Drzislava.

Location of the Faculty of Civil Engineering

Faculty of Civil Engineering is located in the University Campus. It is well connected with other parts of Osijek by tramway (any line going to east from city centre).

Official address is:

Faculty of Civil Engineering
Vladimira Preloga 3, Osijek
Croatia

We moved into this building just recently and not many taxi drivers know where it is. So, if you ask the driver to take you to Agricultural faculty (Poljoprivredni fakultet) or student's dormitory in University Campus, you'll be at the right place because this is building just next to us. Just in case, here are the coordinates of our building: 45.556017, 18.707641.

Taxi fare is 25 kn (3EUR) for the drive up to 5 km long.

Here is the detailed map of Campus:
